

SERVICES AND PRICES

1st April 2023 -

31st March 2024

Providing support to families caring for children and young people with Neurological differences such as Autism and ADHD/ADD.

Behaviour Support Consultation

£53 per session (1 hour)

A tailored approach offering flexibility to the needs of a family and can include long term 1 to 1 support with the child/young person.

We recommend a minimum of 10 sessions, but will assess and advise families on an individual basis. There is no maximum limit.

Attendance can take place on a weekly or monthly basis.

Bis-net, Early Help family support

£350 per course

For parents, carers, who are supporting distressed or unsafe behaviour and have been referred through Devon Children and Families Partnership, Early Help. Families are provided:

- Up to 6 hours of contact time with your consultant
- Weekly appointments conducted over phone or video call
- One optional 'check in' meeting that can be booked flexibly
- By arrangement, attendance to x1 TAF meeting
- Summary report shared with Team Around the Family through Rights4Children

'Check in'

£20 per session (30 minutes)

A 30 minute appointment that allows parents, carers, young people, an opportunity to get in touch. Here are some of the enquires we expect to be able to help with.

- I need help supporting distressing / unsafe behaviour. Where do I start?
- I need someone to debrief with following an episode of distressing / unsafe behaviour.
- It's the holidays, help!